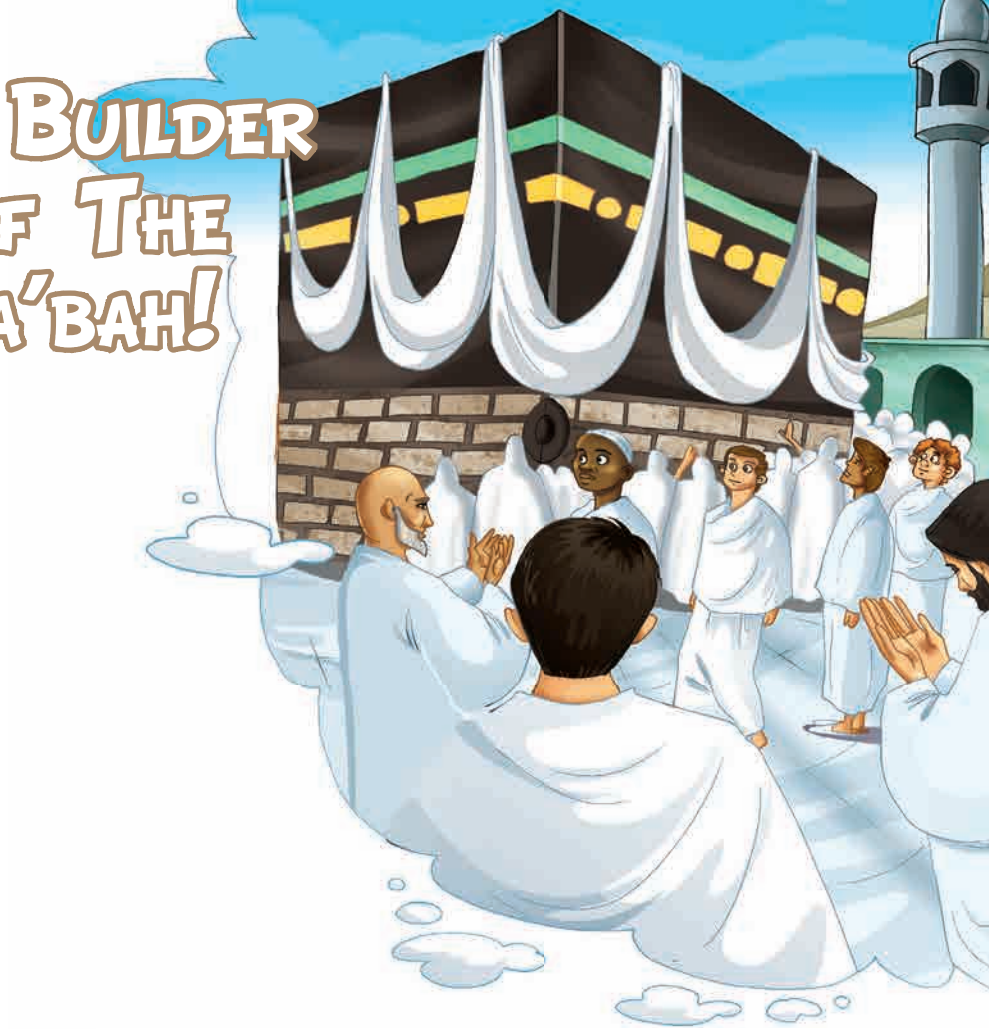
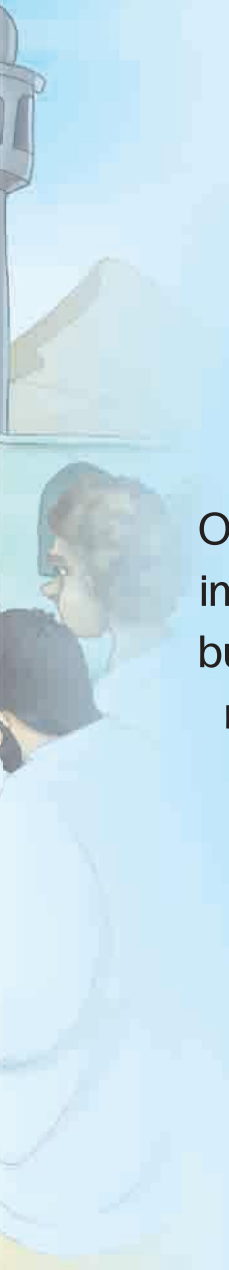
The Builder of The Ka'bah!



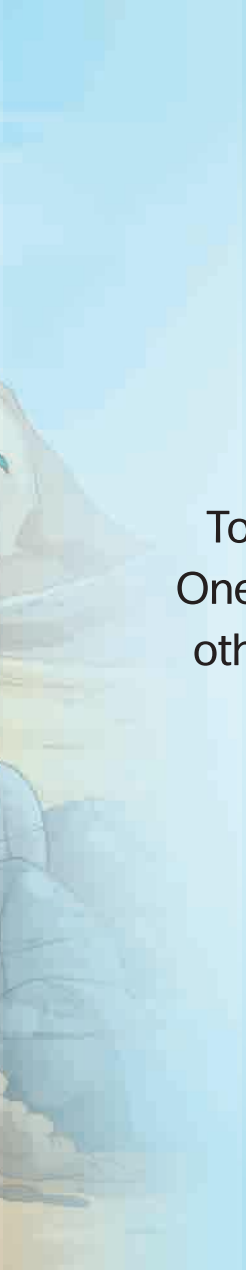
Kisa Kids Publications
Under the Guidance of Moulana Nabi R. Mir (Abidi)

Prophet Ibrahim (a) was a special Prophet of Allah. Allah loved him so much that He even gave him a special name! This special name was Khaleelullah, which means the special friend of Allah.



One day, Allah gave Prophet Ibrahim (a) a very important job. He asked Prophet Ibrahim (a) to build the Ka'bah. Allah said, “The Ka’bah will be my special home. Muslims from all over the world will come to the Ka'bah to pray.”

Prophet Ibrahim (a) felt so excited and honored to be given such a great responsibility. He quickly began building the Ka'bah with the help of his son, Prophet Isma'eel (a). It was a lot of hard work, but they were doing it for Allah, so they had lots of energy and fun!



Together, they had to pick up very big stones! One by one, they piled the stones on top of each other. Slowly, the pile of stones became higher and higher.

Finally, the day had come! They had finished building the Holy Ka'bah. Phew! It was hard work, but as they looked at the finished Ka’bah, they both felt very happy and Allah was happy with them too!

They raised their hands in du'a and thanked Allah. They asked Him to always keep the people who visited the Ka'bah safe!

Did you know that you can see Prophet Ibrahim's (a) footprints next to the Ka'bah? They are kept safe inside a special gold case called Maqaam Ibrahim (a)!

From Prophet Ibrahim's (a) story, we learn that we should work hard to make Allah happy! When we do something for Allah, then Allah helps us and He is happy with us.
